

ANTHONY COLLINS

SERVICES WE OFFER

Anthony Collins is a national specialist law firm with an unrivalled reputation for our work supporting the co-operative movement. We were appointed as lawyers to the apex sector body Co-operatives UK in 2019, building on our support for retail co-operatives, community co-op businesses, and the innovative use of co-operative structures across a wide range of sectors. We are affiliate members of the Co-operative Councils Innovation Network; and we support the Confederation of Co-operative Housing.

TEAM

David Alcock

Partner

0121 214 3652

david.alcock@anthonicollins.com

David Alcock is head of social business at Anthony Collins, where he leads the firm's work with enterprises with a social purpose. He is a specialist in governance issues and helps set up co-operatives, social enterprises and community organisations, as well as helping commercial businesses.

Mark Cook

Partner

0121 214 3636

mark.cook@anthonicollins.com

Mark is an experienced projects lawyer, who has pioneered in embedding social value in public procurement. He is committed to co-operative solutions in the public sector.

Claire Ward

Partner

0121 214 3497

claire.ward@anthonicollins.com

Claire is a local government lawyer. She is involved in co-operative initiatives, which could make a difference to how services have been traditionally delivered by local authorities. Claire is a member of the CCIN values and principles board.

Matthew Gregson

Partner

0121 212 7430

matthew.gregson@anthonicollins.com

Matthew specialises in all aspects of employment law and in particular advise local authorities on issues arising with senior officers, including in relation to disciplinary, grievance matters and settlements.

Cliff Mills

Consultant

0121 214 3599

cliff.mills@anthonicollins.com

Cliff specialises in the law of co-operative, mutual and member-based organisations. He supports those seeking to set up new ventures trading for a social purpose, advises existing organisations on the transition from private or public into democratic, member-based arrangements and seeks to redesign structures for a collaborative and co-productive approach involving users, workers and citizens.